A Protestant is an individual objecting on the ground of private or public interest to the approval of an Application, Petition, Motion or other matters which the Commission may have under consideration. A Protestant may offer sworn testimony but cannot cross-examine witnesses offered by other parties.

CC: PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION of S. CAROLINA

FROM: BASIL KARLOW

ANDERSON, SC 29621

SUBJECT: DUKE-ENERGY & PSC of S.C.

Recently I attended a meeting in Anderson, SC related to recent Duke-Energy Application for power rate increases and tariffs.

There was a lot presented from outraged people dealing with opposition to those increases and they are all documented.

What was an eye opener for me and others in this meeting was that Duke-Energy had increased their rates (the last few years) by 7% and again by 7%. In addition they were allowed by PSC of SC to purchase "Piedmont Natural Gas" their only energy competitor in the upstate of SC.

This Commission that was staging those meetings had not only approved those increases but somehow approved a total 100% Monopoly of Duke-Energy. How could justify that?

It smells corruption! This is an outrage for the people of South Carolina and is a shame.
Help!

Karlow
